Small/Mid Cap Highlights | Solusi Sinergi Digital (WIFI IJ/NOT RATED/Rp1,400)

Page 2 →

- WIFI combines broadband services with fibre infrastructure, supported by its over 8,000km railway fibre backbone and separate FWA and FTTH businesses. The company targets over 3m subscribers and 3.5m FTTH homes passed by end-26. Hashim Djojohadikusumo’s resignation may reflect broader investment restructuring rather than a break with WIFI. Meanwhile, strong 1H26 growth and a 60.4% EBITDA margin support continued expansion, although rollout execution and delayed revenue recognition remain key considerations.

Solusi Sinergi Digital (WIFI IJ)

Solid Underlying With Attractive Valuation

Highlights

- Integrated broadband and infrastructure platform. WIFI operates FWA and FTTH businesses while managing an over 8,000km fibre backbone that can also be leased to third parties.
- Hashim remains economically exposed to WIFI. His effective interest is around 24.5%, while DOOH's plans to acquire WIFI and INET could point to broader digital-infrastructure consolidation.
- Strong financial growth supports expansion. 1H26 revenue rose 206% yoy and EBITDA increased 117% yoy, although three-month free periods could delay revenue contribution from recent subscribers into 2027.

Analysis

- WIFI combines a broadband ISP business with a fibre-infrastructure platform through two subsidiaries. Telemedia Komunikasi Pratama (TKP), 99.9%-owned by Solusi Sinergi Digital (WIFI), operates the 5G fixed wireless access (FWA) business, while Integrasi Jaringan Ekosistem (WEAVE), 51%-owned by WIFI and 49% by Nippon Telegraph and Telephone East, operates the fibre-to-the-home (FTTH) business. WEAVE also manages WIFI's over 8,000km railway fibre backbone, which supports FTTH rollout and can be leased to third parties. As of 1H26, WIFI had 1.85m FTTH and 513,000 FWA subscribers. By end-26, it targets over 3m combined subscribers, 3.5m FTTH homes passed and 5,500 FWA sites. WIFI uses mini-towers installed above residential properties to accelerate FWA rollout, although deployment pace remains a key execution risk.
- Hashim's resignation does not necessarily signal a break with WIFI. Market speculation has centred on a potential disagreement after Hashim Djojohadikusumo stepped down as WIFI's President Commissioner only three months after his appointment, alongside the resignation of Director Henny Santoso. However, several developments suggest that the move could instead reflect a broader restructuring of Hashim's investment interests. Hashim, through Arsari Sentra Data, owns 45% of Investasi Sukses Bersama, which controls 54.42% of WIFI, giving him an effective economic interest of around 24.5% in WIFI. WIFI has also stated that the resignations have no material impact on its operations, financial condition or business continuity. In addition, Era Media Sejahtera (DOOH) has indicated plans to acquire WIFI, while also pursuing an acquisition of INET, which could point to a broader consolidation of digital-infrastructure assets rather than a full exit by Hashim from the ecosystem.

BoD And BoC With Various Stakeholders In IRA Launch

Source: Bisnis Tekno, WIFI

- WIFI's 1H26 results show strong growth as telecommunications becomes the main revenue driver. Revenue reached Rp1.57t, up 206% yoy, with telecommunications revenue rising 357% yoy to Rp1.28t and contributing 82% of total revenue. EBITDA increased 117% yoy to Rp948.9b, with a 60.4% margin, while net profit rose 118% yoy to Rp496.8b. 1H26 capex exceeded Rp1t, mainly for FWA sites, FTTH home passes and customer-premises equipment. WIFI ended 1H26 with Rp8.29t of cash and 0.85x net debt/EBITDA. Management targets a 50-60% 2026 EBITDA margin. WIFI also offers a three-month free period for new subscribers, including customers acquired through its World Cup campaign, which could delay revenue recognition, with the full revenue contribution potentially flowing through in 2027.

Valuation

- WIFI currently trades at a 4.63x trailing 12-month EV/EBITDA, a slight premium to Indonesian mobile network operators of 4.31x. However, this does not fully reflect its ongoing FWA expansion.

Risk/Catalyst

- Risk: a) Execution risk, and b) worsening macro environment.
- Catalyst: Announcement of corporate actions.
